

Those You Know

Lester London is reported on the sick list this week.

Merifield Huff is spending a few days in the city.

Carleton College will open its regular fall term October 4.

Mr. Otto Sanders of near Liberty is down with typhoid fever.

Mrs. A. W. McGraw of Elvins was a Farmington visitor Tuesday.

Myers Mayberry will enter William Jewell College next Monday.

Special line of ribbons at 25c per yard, for hair bows.—Mrs. S. C. Watts.

Ruffner Lloyd and wife were in St. Louis shopping the first part of the week.

Mrs. Harriet Bradley visited a few days this week with Mrs. T. B. Sweringer of Route 2.

Mrs. Hartford, of the Union Bakery, was visiting friends and relatives in St. Louis this week.

Harold McCurdy is reported gradually recovering from a severe siege of typhoid fever.

Our opening date is Thursday, September 23rd. Don't fail to come.—Mrs. S. C. Watts.

Pastor H. Hallerberg of the Lutheran church spent the first part of the week in St. Louis.

Mrs. Tom Barks of Doe Run is sick with typhoid fever. She is reported to be recovering nicely.

Mr. Hiram Gordon of the Madison school district is very sick of typhoid fever at this writing.

Miss Maggie Henry Counts visited Mr. P. G. Smith of Route 4 the latter part of last week.

Rev. O. H. L. Cunningham of Farmington will preach at Three Rivers at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

Contractor Ed Hawn has the job of removing the old Pigg Ford bridge from the bed of the river.

Misses Violet and Lucile Simpson of Libertyville enrolled at the Farmington High School Monday.

Mr. Andy Yeager, a prosperous farmer of Route 2, transacted business in Farmington Wednesday.

Hon. Walter Hensley and Attorney B. H. Marbury, were in St. Louis on business the first part of the week.

Mrs. Ernest Weber spent a couple days in St. Louis this week visiting her son, Dr. Harry Weber.

School Books and School Supplies for St. Francois and Ste. Genevieve counties.—Pelt's Book Store.

Leon Haile left Thursday for Columbia, where he expects to take up the study of medicine in the State University.

Miss Loise Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham, is attending the public school in Farmington.

Mr. Wm. Luken of Jacksonville, Ill., is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. H. Hallerberg, of the Lutheran parsonage.

Mr. J. E. Beard is down on his farm transacting business preparatory to having a sale there on Saturday, September 11th.

The beautiful home of Mrs. Mollie Long will be for rent Oct. 1st. This house is in good condition and has a bath. See J. S. Clay.

Mrs. G. M. London, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitener, of near Fredericktown, returned home Sunday.

Mr. Giles Hunt of DeLassus dropped in our sanctum last Tuesday and ordered his subscription extended to Dec. 1, 1915.

Prof. Hugh Mayberry left last Thursday for Marshall, Mo., where he has a position as instructor in the public high schools.

Pauline Byington left Monday for Ste. Genevieve, where she will have charge of an important post in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dunn and little daughter, Robbie Enslly, of Cape Girardeau are visiting Mrs. Dunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Pipkin.

Mr. Fulkerson and wife, N. B. Graham, wife and little daughter of Fredericktown passed through Farmington Monday on their way to Iron Mountain.

They were making the trip in an auto.

Mr. Peter Schmidt was a St. Louis visitor this week.

Rev. G. W. Harlan celebrated his 91st birthday last Tuesday.

Atty. Geo. M. Wilson transacted business in St. Louis this week.

Cashier Luther Williams was in St. Louis on business Wednesday.

D. L. Delaney and wife spent Sunday at Fredericktown with relatives.

Mr. Wm. O'Sullivan and son, William, Jr., are spending this week in the city.

Lester Bleack left Thursday for LaFayette, Mo., where he will enter William Jewell College.

Dr. E. E. McCormick made a business trip to the city the first part of the week.

The County Court has appropriated $400 for the improvement of the Elvins-Doe Run road.

Mr. Geo. Forster of the firm Smith, Bleack & Forster made a business trip to the city this week.

Misses Rosa and Mamie Cunningham returned home Wednesday after a week's visit in Sikeston, Mo.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Klein, last Monday, a fine boy. Mother and son are reported doing nicely.

Hon. B. H. Marbury attended the funeral of Judge John Brown who was buried in St. Louis last Tuesday.

Mr. Jacob Day, one of our leading citizens, transacted business in St. Louis the first part of the week.

Mr. Bert Cleveland, one of the leading farmers of Doe Run, transacted business in Farmington Wednesday.

Hon. William Lewis, who is a clerk in the Secretary of State's office, is visiting in St. Francois County this week.

Mr. Amel Schramm transacted business in St. Louis in the interest of the Schramm Grocery Co. of Flat River.

Prof. G. W. Moothart, Rev. Bailey and T. C. Young motored to Desloge Monday to hear the Governor's address.

Mr. Charley Kollmeyer, one of the leading stockmen of this section, transacted business in St. Louis the first of this week.

John Coffman, after a few days spent in St. Louis in the interest of the Coffman Cash Grocery Store, returned Thursday.

Miss Effie Bess, formerly employed with the Henderson Mercantile Co., has accepted a position at Flat River as saleslady.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McFarland, Sept. 7, twins—boy and girl. Mother and babies are reported getting along nicely.

Our efficient Sheriff, J. C. Williams, spent a day or two the first part of the week in Bollinger county transacting business.

Homer Carver, one of the efficient clerks of the Farmington Mercantile Store, transacted business in the city the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gierse and mother returned home yesterday from Poplar Bluff, where they had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gierse.

W. L. Hunt and sister, Miss Jennie, who have been at Excelsior Springs for the last month, returned home the first of the week much improved in health.

Dr. Robinson and son, John, left last Monday for Montana, where the Doctor will visit his brother, and in the mean-time take a much needed rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swink and little son of near Libertyville spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Swink's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell.

Style, price, service is the triple alliance that has made this store the Millinery headquarters for the women of Farmington.

ton.—Mrs. S. C. Watts.

Just received—a car load of Swift's Fertilizer. We also have a good stock of Grass Seeds—prices net cash.—Mell & Phillips, Farmington, Mo.

Miss Anna Puttmann, who has been visiting the past ten days in St. Louis, returned home Wednesday. We understand that Miss Puttmann will enter the Ozark Business University soon.

Ex-Senator J. L. Bradley and now Deputy Labor Commissioner, of Jefferson City, has been spending this week in St. Francois county, taking care of his political fences.

Carl Trauernicht resigned his position as Deputy County Clerk and left Tuesday for the Cumberland University in Tennessee, where he expects to take up the study of law.

M. A. Patterson of Route 1, Bonne Terre, reports the sale last week of the place known as the Rariden farm on that route, owned by W. T. Haile, to Luther Elders, consideration, $4,000.

Elic Wilson, Lieut. in the U. S. Infantry, who has been spending the summer with his parents here, left Tuesday to report for duty. Elic is a home boy and we hope he makes good.

Mrs. N. D. Vail and her two children, Dorothy and Paul, have returned to their home at Poplar Bluff after a month's visit with Mrs. Vail's mother, Mrs. L. C. Barroll.

Mr. J. E. Cover, who was confined to the sick room for several weeks, is looking fine and is on the road to recovery. He is a good man and the people feel elated at his improvement.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Mr. and Mrs. Osmond Benedict and children, who have been spending the summer with the latter's parents on Route 2, left for Nevada Tuesday, where Mr. Benedict will take up his trade as an electrician.

The County Court yesterday evening appointed Mr. T. N. Henderson Supt. of the County Infirmary to succeed Mr. T. J. Short, who gave the Court his resignation some time ago to take effect Oct. 1.

Mr. A. J. Buchanan, wife and children of Van Buren are visiting C. B. Rogers and family this week. Mr. Buchanan is a brother of Mrs. Rogers, and is in charge of a large general merchandise business at Van Buren.

Mr. W. J. Anderson brought to our office Wednesday some of the largest "spuds" we have seen for some time. One among them weighed one and one-fourth pounds. He grew them in his garden in this city.

Homer Clay leaves today for the State University at Columbia, Mo., where he will enter upon his second year at that institution. Mr. Clay is a brilliant young man of scholarly attainments and a promising future is spread before him.

Mrs. J. E. Beard entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Evaly and Inez Gregory, and Arian King. Those present were: Mrs. Beard's mother, Mrs. G. R. Marlow; a brother, Walter Marlow; a niece, Miss Ida Ellis, and the house guests.

Constable J. E. Trask of Desloge brought Tony Bost, a forger of Desloge, to Farmington Wednesday and lodged him in jail. Bost was convicted in

YOU Are Invited to our First Showing of FALL MILLINERY

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
SEPTEMBER, 17th and 18th, 1915

On these two days there will be displayed here every style of Hat authentic for Fall and Winter of 1915.

You will enjoy seeing these new creations, for they are so decidedly different, so snappy and attractive, yet withal, reasonably priced!

Rains & Croft

Farmington, - Missouri

Justice Arnold's court of disturbing the peace of his family, and his punishment fixed at 20 days in jail.

Misses Evaly and Inez Gregory, and Arian King of Pickneyville, Ill., have been visiting with Mrs. J. E. Beard and family of this city and with friends and relatives at Fredericktown for the last two weeks. They left Monday for their home in Illinois.

The little daughter of Mr. R. P. Lang had a very narrow escape Sunday evening, from what might have been a serious accident. The child ran in front of Mr. Lang's car and before he could stop, the car had passed over the child; but fortunately the wheels didn't touch her. The child received several painful bruises.

Presiding Judge C. J. Garrett dropped into The Times office a few minutes Wednesday, and in the course of his conversation stated that there were many applications before the Court for the position of Superintendent of the County Infirmary. The Judge is one of Bismarck's most popular citizens and we are favorably impressed with his firmness and great personality.

Sheriff Criswell of Washington county was here Wednesday and took a prisoner to Potosi, who was wanted there for an offense committed some time ago. The prisoner was apprehended recently in Leadwood by Sam Thompson, a deputy of Constable Trask's.

Lyman Mathews and wife of Oran, Mo., spent the first part of the week visiting the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. E. E. Swink. Mr. Mathews is assistant cashier of the Oran bank and also has charge of several large farms adjoining the city.

Mr. J. P. Jennings, a progressive and successful farmer, living 8 miles north of this city, was in our office last Thursday and had us print bills for a sale, which he will have at his farm Saturday, September 18. This affords a good chance to supply your farm wants.

Mrs. Lawrence Wells and daughters, Georgia, Edith and Ethel, who have been spending most of the summer at a health resort in California, returned home Saturday. Our Assessor reports that Mrs. Wells gained in the neighborhood of 40 lbs., and their daughter, Georgia, also who had been in ill health, is feeling fine. Mrs. Wells reports that while in California they were encamped for two months at the very foot of Mt. Whitney.

NOTICE, FARMERS

I would like to correspond with any farmer wanting to build house or barn of wood or concrete. Single, no family. Address,

R. Snyder, Desloge, Mo.

Triply Protected

First, the inner container of paper, next the big yellow carton, and then, the outer wrapping of waxed paper, sealed air-tight and dust-proof. Superior protection for the Superior Corn Flakes—

Post Toasties

These delightful flakes are made of the finest white Indian Corn, steam-cooked, daintily seasoned, rolled and toasted—crisp and golden-brown.

Post Toasties reach you fresh and delicious, perfectly protected and ready to eat. They are mighty good with milk or cream, or with any kind of fruit.

"The Memory Lingers"

—sold by Grocers everywhere.

"Sudden pain from over-strain"

Every Housewife or Mother is ever under that Nervous Strain which so often results in Headaches, Dizzy Sensations, Faintness, Depression and other Nervous Disorders.

Dr. Miles' NERVINE

is Highly Recommended in Such Cases.

IF FIRST BOTTLE FAILS TO BENEFIT, YOUR MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

BADLY RUN DOWN.
"I had become greatly run down and my nerves were in terrible condition. I had frequent headaches and became very weak and was unable to do anything. I bought a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nerveine. I soon began to feel better, my nerves were quieted, I recovered my strength and have since recommended Dr. Miles' Nerveine to many of my friends who have used it with satisfactory results."
—MRS. FRANCES WHITLOCK,
479 Broadway, Rahway, N. J.